Report of Workshop on Competitive Exam Guidance (Police Bharti)

A workshop on Police Bharti examinations was held at our college on 13th March 2023 led by Asst. Prof. Arpana Borale, an esteemed expert in the field. The workshop aimed to provide aspiring candidates with comprehensive guidance and strategies to succeed in the rigorous selection process of police recruitment exams. Asst. Prof. Borale commenced the session by elucidating the exam pattern, syllabus structure, and key topics emphasized in the police bharti examinations. Her detailed analysis of previous question papers and trends provided attendees with invaluable insights into the examination's nuances and expectations, setting a solid foundation for effective preparation.

Throughout the workshop, Prof. Borale engaged participants in interactive discussions and problem-solving sessions, encouraging active participation and collaboration among attendees. She emphasized the significance of time management, critical thinking, and physical fitness, underscoring the holistic approach required to excel in police recruitment exams. Additionally, Prof. Borale shared expert tips and techniques to enhance performance in various sections, including reasoning, numerical ability, and general awareness. The workshop concluded with a Q&A session, where participants had the opportunity to seek clarification on specific topics and receive personalized guidance from Asst. Prof. Borale. Overall, the workshop proved to be a valuable resource for aspirants, equipping them with the knowledge, skills, and confidence to pursue a career in law enforcement through successful completion of the police bharti examinations. Around 18 students participated in program
